

DANIEL SCHER

Portfolio Manager / Research Analyst
Franklin Real Asset Advisors
Franklin Templeton Institutional, LLC
New York, United States

Daniel Scher is a portfolio manager and research analyst responsible for U.S., Canadian, and Australian REITs. Prior to joining the team in 2007, Mr. Scher spent over four years performing business development, marketing and client service functions for Franklin Templeton Institutional in Melbourne, Australia.

Prior to joining Franklin Templeton, Mr. Scher worked for the asset management division of the Australia and New Zealand Banking Group (ANZ) providing investment support and research to the institutional funds management distribution team. Prior to this, he was employed with Ernst & Young in their international taxation division as a graduate economist.

Mr. Scher received a bachelor of commerce from Monash University, majoring in economics and finance, in addition to an Honours Degree in economics. Mr. Scher also completed a graduate diploma of applied finance and investment from the Securities Institute of Australia and has earned the accreditation of Certified Investment Management Analyst (CIMA).