

MOHIEDDINE KRONFOL

Chief Investment Officer
Global Sukuk and MENA Fixed Income
Franklin Local Asset Management
Franklin Templeton Investments (ME) Limited
Dubai, United Arab Emirates

Mohieddine (Dino) Kronfol is a chief investment officer of Global Sukuk and MENA fixed income at Franklin Templeton Investments. Mr. Kronfol is responsible for the investment process, research and performance of the Global Sukuk and MENA Fixed Income teams. He is one of the founding partners and board member of Franklin Templeton Investments (ME), formerly Algebra Capital, and has been with the firm since its inception in 2006. He is the lead portfolio manager of the FTSF Global Sukuk Fund and FTIF GCC Bond Fund and a member of the Franklin Local Asset Management Team.

He was previously the head of SHUAA Capital's Debt Asset Management where he launched and managed the first fund to focus exclusively on MENA debt.

Mr. Kronfol holds a bachelor's degree in business administration and an M.B.A. from the American University of Beirut.